SCHOOL RELEASES WORSHIP CD

HEAVENLY PRAISE

SCAMPS, the performing arts club of St Marie's Catholic Junior School in Merttens Drive, Rugby, is to release their latest (eighth) CD on Saturday 12th April.

Titled Heavenly Praise this is the school's second worship album, following the success of Servant of God two years ago. It includes songs, hymns and chants written by Headteacher Michael Floyd and Rugby composer John Howes. The recording and mixing is by Rugby sound engineer Roman Krause.

(What talented people we have in our town!)

The children are accompanied by local band Serenity, featuring Greg Floyd on keyboards and guitars and Jan Krause on drums.

Greg's own debut CD, Circles of Friends, was released last month.
